BRITISH SUBMARINE SINKS; FOURTEEN DROWN

Portsmouth, Eng., Feb. 2.—Fourteen men composing the crew of the British submarine "A-3" perished today when the vessel sank in the harbor here after a collision with the gunboat Hazard.

The crew was made up of volunteers from the fleet, as in the case with the complements of all submarines. In spite of the hazardous nature of the service the men like the work and volunteer for it in large numbers.

Lies Near Where Another Sank.

The submarine lies on the Princess shoal almost on the same spot where the submarine "A-1" was lost with all hands on March 13, 1904. British submarines belonging to the "A" class have been singularly unfortunate. The "A-5" had six men killed and 12 injured by an explosion at Queenstown on February 16, 1905. The "A-8" sank off Plymouth on June 8, 1905, with 14 men out of her crew of 18 lost their lives. The "A-4" sank during the man-

PREACHES PEACE TO CONGRESSMEN

Bohemian Nobleman Is Given 15 Minutes Despite Protest.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—Count Francis Von Luitow, of Bohemia, chamberlain to emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria, addressed the house of representatives today on universal peace, during a 15 minute recess asked by Democratic leader Underwood.

Berger, socialist congressman from Milwaukee, protested against a foreign nobleman addressing the house, and remarked that no such distinction would ever be accorded a foreign socialist.

"Two months ago," he said, "a famous Bohemian socialist, who is a member of the reichstag, was in Washington, but was not asked to address the house."

"But, surely, no one objected to his being asked," said representative Underwood.

"Oh, no," said Mr. Berger, "but I knew I would have no chance if I asked to have a foreign socialist speak to the house."

Mr. Berger withdrew his objection. The day in Congress.

SHERIFFS' BANQUET COSTS $50 A PLATE

New York, N. Y., Feb. 2.—Twenty-five thousand dollars is the estimated cost of the annual banquet of the sheriff's jury held here last night. This was at the rate of $50 a plate for the 500 men present.

The menu was elaborate and costly and each diner received as a souvenir a solid silver loving cup, the pedestal formed of a figure of Justice balancing her scales. The guests included business men, lawyers, financiers, politicians and men of prominence in the sporting world.

In theory the sheriff's panels are composed of the city's most prominent citizens, whose interests are so great that they would be jeopardized by the time required by ordinary jury work. By being placed on the sheriff's list they are exempt from jury service.

New York City is the only place where these permanent sheriff's panels are permitted.

PLEADS TO JUDGE FOR DEATH SENTENCE

Santa Barbara, Calif., Feb. 2.—On bended knees Jesus Yriqui begged Judge Crow today to sentence him to be hanged in execution of the murder of Carlos Angra and Juan Hernandez on Christmas day, but the court refused, sending him to San Quentin for life instead.

Yriqui pleaded guilty several days ago, interrupting his trial to do so, and today was brought into court for sentence.

"I am guilty," he moaned. "Every night I see the faces of those dead men before me. I cannot sleep or eat. I want to be hanged."

Judge Crow ordered the court bailiff to hold Yriqui up while sentence was imposed.
